b. Orientation for CT Wives

The Career Training Staff presented a special program for the wives of members of the January 1973 Class on the morning of 13 January at the Chamber of Commerce building. Thirteen wives attended. The program included a briefing on Agency organization and the showing of two films, "A Need to Know" and Doctor Kissinger's recent "Twenty-fifth Anniversary Address." Following the films, the wives met with the CT program officers for an informal question-and-answer session. The wives appeared to be most appreciative of the program.

c. Office Management Seminar

STATINTL

The second running of this four-day course began on Tuesday of this week. [ ] Fourteen senior secretaries are attending. The two principal guest speakers from the first seminar, Mr. Blake and Dr. Jesse Colson from FSI, are repeating their presentations in this session.

d. Language Training

STATINTL

The Training Officer from SB Division reports that [ ] has responded favorably to our idea of an extended total-immersion language exercise for SB Russian speakers. The Language School and SB Division will now begin their planning with the aim of holding the first exercise next fall or no later than the following spring.

e. Summary

STATINTL

The Christmas hull over, training is in full swing again. Twenty-one courses were in session this week. Four more courses will begin next week, including the third running of the Senior Seminar [ ]

2. Notes

STATINTL

We are still awaiting word from CSC on the enrollment of [ ] the Agency's designated Federal Women's Coordinator, in the Federal Women's Symposium
